

How do u find the program number on a model train?

My grandpa has a model train club with a bunch of guys, some very good with electronics. I noticed when i was with him that he had a hard time figuring out the program number of a model train, so he could drive the train on the track.

Is there a software that allows a computer to tell the program number? and do u need the train to be on some kind of special track?

You can also find this article published on How do u find the program number on a model train?, and on the tag pages Drive Train, Find, Grandpa, Hard Time, model, Model Train Club, number, program, Train, Train Track.